Women's Bracket:

Rules:

Winners of each prelim heat and the runner with next furthest distance advance to final heat

Erin Forde: You may know Erin as a friendly, bubbly face at the Runner's Edge. But watch out, she's a fierce competitor. Although she is more of a road marathoner these days, Erin has been a finalist at the Treadmill Challenge in years past. She previously ran at Iowa State University as a middle distance runner, and now coaches at Hellgate High School. Erin is also a great friend to have, as she laughs at all jokes, no matter how terrible.

Nicole Murray: Nicole is an absolute machine at the Treadmill Challenge. Undefeated every time that she's competed, she was also a 2x US Olympic Marathon trials qualifier, a US National Champion in Mountain Running, and a 2x member of the US National Team for Mountain Running. Nicole is coming off of a 2nd place finish at the Sentinel Hill Climb, so she is certainly looking forward to reclaiming an uphill crown.

Abby Kendrick: A recent graduate of Hellgate High School, Abby recently placed 3rd in the 1600 at the Montana High School State Track Meet. Abby is also the manager of a popular vlog which chronicles the last couple years on the Hellgate Cross Country Team. Next year, Abby will be running for Boise State University. At the Treadmill Challenge, her primary focus will likely be defeating her coach, Erin Forde.

Elise Stearns: Another Hellgate Grad, Elise is headed into her 3rd year running for Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff. Previously a competitor in the Treadmill Challenge in 2019, Elise is looking to qualify for the final and also to try and defeat her old coach, Erin Forde.

Trish Drobeck: Multiple time Missoula Marathon Champion and 2016 US Olympic Trials Marathon Qualifier, Trish is a beast on the road scene. With her most recent results of 2:52 from the Utah Valley Marathon in June, we're all left wondering: can she compete with her husband's Treadmill Challenge outfits? We'll find out on Tuesday.

Evie Tate: The Treadmill Challenge Champion from 2019 RETURNS. Evie has been steadily chipping away for the past two years, running as early as 4:30 in the morning to get in her training. Rumor has it that she is in the best shape of her life for this event. While she isn't training for the Treadmill Challenge, Evie is a physical therapist for Sapphire Physical Therapy and tending to her new dog, Mozz.
